

DEMETER

Feminist Publishing on Mothering, Reproduction, Sexuality, and Family

Demeter Press promotes maternal scholarship and writing, both at the university and community level, by publishing books that speak to women's diverse insights, experiences, ideas, stories, studies, and concerns about mothering, reproduction, sexuality and family.

Founded in 2006, Demeter Press is the first publisher focused specifically on Mothering, Reproduction, Sexuality, and Family. We are an independent feminist press committed to publishing peer-reviewed scholarly work and creative non-fiction on mothering, reproduction, sexuality, and family issues. The press is named in honour of the Goddess Demeter, herstory's most celebrated, empowered, and outraged mother.

The Liminal Chrysalis: Imagining Reproduction and Parenting Futures Beyond the Binary

edited by Kori Doty and A.J. Lowik

January 2022 / 978-1-77258-358-8 / $39.95 / 300 pp.

QUEER AND SEXUALITY STUDIES / QUEER THEORY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / NONBINARY PARENTING / E-BOOK

This is an edited collection that works to identify and deconstruct many of the countless binaries that operate within the realms of parenting and reproduction. Weaving poetry, speculative fiction, and autobiography, with interviews, critical analysis, and research, the authors take as their starting place that there is magical potential and possibility in the ambiguous, disorienting spaces of the in-between and the beyond. It challenges the constructedness of binaries connected to sex, gender, sexuality, and parenting roles, as well as the cis-, hetero-, repro-, trans- and amatonormativities which pervasively circulate and inform how we think about parenting and reproductive life.

“The Liminal Chrysalis is a much needed collection that offers a space for pregnancy outside of womanhood, and stories from other places from which to become.”—J WALLACE SKELTON is a PhD candidate at OISE, a seahorse papa, and a parent of three

Mothers Who Kill

edited by Charlotte Beyer and Josephine Savarese

February 2022 / 978-1-77258-357-1 / $39.95 / 300 pp.

SOCIOLOGY / CRIMINOLOGY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

This compelling and unique collection of critical and creative work assesses for the first time cultural, literary, legal and historical representations and narratives about mothers who kill and filicide. The idea of a mother killing her child to many presents the greatest taboo, and the most disturbing and distressing aspect of maternal experience. The book includes creative work, essays on crime fiction, literature from across a range of historical periods, multicultural and Global South perspectives, legal and historical accounts, and more. Making an invaluable contribution to motherhood studies and gender criticism, this book offers a rich insight into current and cutting-edge research into this most troubling area of maternal representation.

“This innovative project brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines alongside creative practitioners to discuss and shed light on a subject that has not yet received much critical attention. It will be a useful reference text for years to come.”—DR. CHRISTINE BERBERICH, Reader in Literature, University of Portsmouth

Obstetric Violence: Realities and Resistance from Around the World

edited by Angela N. Castañeda, Nicole Hill, and Julie Johnson Searcy

March 2022 / 978-1-77258-375-5 / $39.95 / 280 pp.

MIDWIFERY / PREGNANCY/BIRTH / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

In this book, we make space to interrogate obstetric violence; from its historical and legal roots and contemporary realities, to responses of advocacy and resistance. The time for a global recognition of obstetric violence – of the larger structural forces embedded in systems that cross cultures and violate bodies in acutely vulnerable life moments – is now. By naming it and saying it out loud we recognize obstetric violence exists and can together begin the process of systemic change necessary to prevent it.

“A compelling and illuminating multi-voice account that reveals/unveils the various shapes in which obstetric violence, one of the most normalized expressions of violence against women throughout the world, is expressed. Essential reading to recognize, name and address obstetric violence, opening the horizon for a discussion about giving birth to healthier and caring generations to come.”—MICHELLE SADLER, medical anthropologist, birth researcher, and activist

Black Sisterhoods: Paradigms and Praxis

edited by Tamara Bertrand Jones, Denise Davis-Maye, Sophia Rahming, and Jill Andrew

April 2022 / 978-1-77258-378-6 / $38.95 / 280 pp.

BLACK STUDIES / WOMEN’S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / FRIENDSHIP / E-BOOK

Sisterhood is oft elusive, if not a misunderstood concept. Despite all the factors that could impede the development, elevation, and maintenance of sistering relationships, Black women continue to acknowledge the value of sisterhoods. Sistering offers a lifeline of support and validation. Using Sisterhood as a framework, we explore Sisterhood as Peer Support, examining how Black women provide support to peers in academic and professional settings. We embark on a provision of applied exemplars of sistering in emerging digital media in Digital Sisterhood.

“This collection’s blend of theory, discipline, lived experience, and progressive methodology is interesting in structure and content. The connection of academic space to community space to digital space—creating sisterhood—brings the reader on a journey through many areas of connection and creation of meaning—from support in intimate spaces to resistance in oppressive public spaces.”—DR. STEPHANIE Y. EVANS, Georgia State University

Mothering, Community, and Friendship

edited by Dannabang Kuwabong, Dorsía Smith Silva, and Essah Diaz

May 2022 / 978-1-77258-374-8 / $39.95 / 250 pp.

SOCIOLOGY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

This is an anthology that explores the complexities of mothering/ motherhood, communities, and friendship from across interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspectives. The chapters in this text not only examine how communities and friendship shape and influence the various spectrums of motherhood, but also analyze how communities and friendship are necessary for mothers. Through personal, reflective, critical essays, and ethnographies, this collection situates the ways mothers are connected to communities and how these relationships form, such as in mothering groups and maternal friendships.

“This book is a welcome, and absolutely, enjoyable Read! Through prose and poetry, the book tells stories of mothers, mothering, motherhood and community and transports the reader through, between and among the realms of the arduous journeys of mothering. The book will appeal to varied audiences who will come to it, engage and leave it, from (and at) different entry points.”—DR. SYLVIA BAWA, Associate Professor of Sociology at York University

Ruin

by Rebecca Jaremko Bromwich

May 2022 / 978-1-77258-409-7 / $19.95 / 90 pp.

FICTION / COVID-19 / DIVORCE / MOTHERHOOD / E-BOOK

How can Enid move forward when her marriage, as well as the world she has known, simultaneously fall apart? In the midst of the COVID 19 pandemic, Enid Alger Kimble, protagonist of Bromwich’s first novel, Not Your Penance, seeks to reconcile with her past, and finds, through ruin, rebirth. Having returned to Canada and to work as a lawyer, Enid leaves her surgeon husband, Dr. Arthur Kimble. Trying to find healing and a purpose beyond the roles of wife and mother about which she has felt so ambivalent, Enid travels physically and metaphorically through the ruins of her marriage, the ruins of Classical Greece in the Aegean, and finally the remnants of her own prairie childhood. Enid undertakes a long overdue homecoming to accept the Blackfoot Nation’s offer of COVID 19 vaccinations, as she journeys into single parenting her five children. As far flung and diverse as the first novel in the series is claustrophobic and tense, Ruin offers fresh perspectives on law, midlife, mothering and divorce. It is a windswept, hope-filled story of reconciliation and redemption through the COVID 19 pandemic, midlife, law, and divorce.

Gun Violence and Gun Control: Critical Engagements

edited by Annette Bailey, Thomas S. Harrison, and Rebecca Jaremko Bromwich

June 2022 / 978-1-77258-377-9 / $39.95 / 270 pp.

SOCIOLOGY / GUN VIOLENCE STUDIES / CRIMINOLOGY / E-BOOK

Millions of people are hurt and killed by gun violence globally, and the traumatic realities of these events are navigated by individuals and communities widely. In this context, gun violence fundamentally threatens social functioning in significant ways, and profoundly tests the resilience of families. The resulting transformations carry social, political, legal, and economic implications for mothering, family dynamics, and community engagement. Ultimately, this work is a unique contribution to the literature in which there is a lack of wide academic consideration of gun violence and a demonstrably unsatisfactory political response stretching back decades.

“While mainstream discussions of gun violence and gun control seem to swirl around or glaze over identity politics, racism, implicit bias and stigma, among others, this anthology, in different ways, brings these challenging topics to the fore and makes them centre stage for interrogation. This is a provocative book—a must read for anyone concerned about keeping conversations about gun violence and gun control alive.”—JAMES GACEK, PhD, Assistant Professor, Department of Justice Studies, University of Regina

Maternal Regret: Resistances, Renunciations, and Reflections

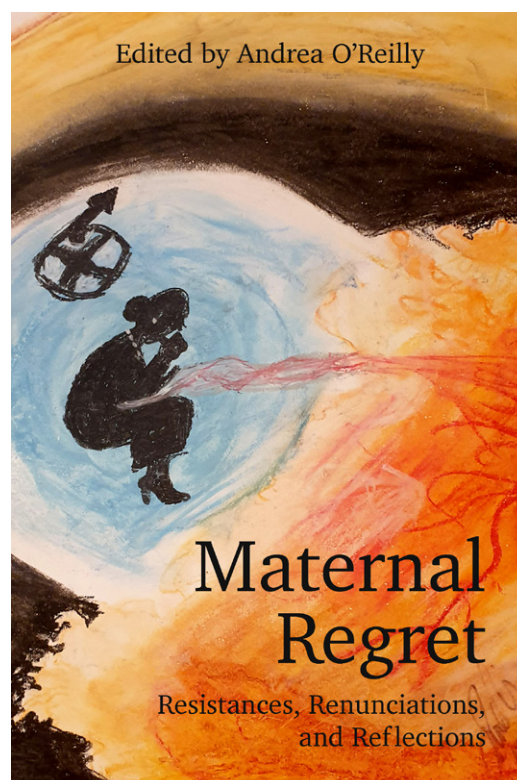

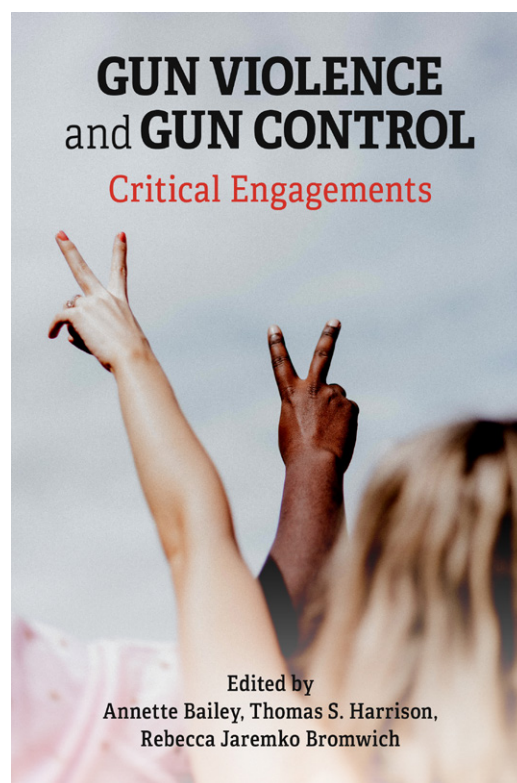

edited by Andrea O’Reilly

July 2022 / 978-1-77258-379-3 / $39.95 / 280 pp.

MATERNAL THEORY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

This collection considers how maternal regret, as it is conveyed in remorse, resentment, dissatisfaction, and disappointment, troubles the assumptions and mandates of normative motherhood and how it is explored and critiqued in creative non-fiction, film, literature, and social media. It is also examined in relation to the estrangement of mother and child and the remorse and grief felt by both mothers and children caused by the abandonment of mother or child. Finally, the collection explores how regret opens the space for maternal erudition, enlightenment, and evolution; and makes possible maternal empowerment.

“With this outstanding book, Demeter Press makes a vital intervention into the emerging critical and creative field of maternal regret. As editor Andrea O’Reilly explains, articulations of maternal regret were previously surrounded by shame and alienation. That silence was exacerbated by a gap in knowledge, as until recently the topic of maternal regret was shunned from public discourse, making this book a key contribution to the study of motherhood and mothering.”—DR. CHARLOTTE BEYER, University of Gloucestershire

Parenting/Internet/Kids: Domesticating Technologies

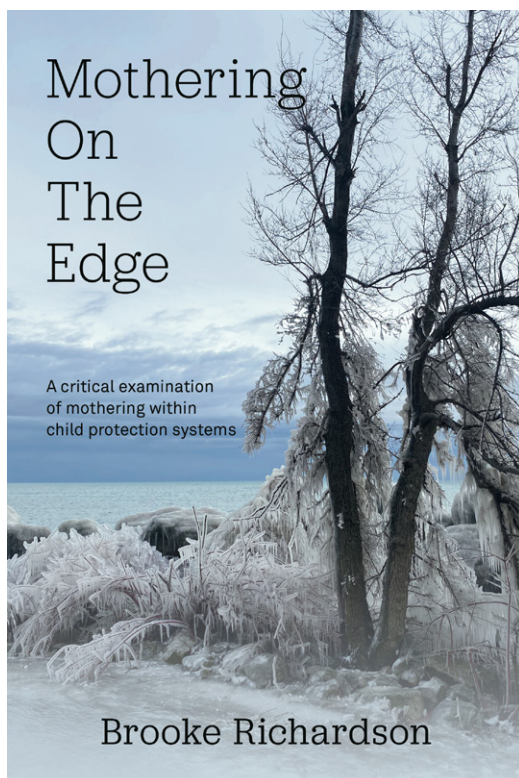

edited by Fiona Joy Green and Jaqueline McLeod Rogers

August 2022 / 978-1-77258-384-7 / $39.95 / 340 pp.

COMMUNICATION STUDIES / INTERNET AND SOCIAL MEDIA STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

Parenting/Internet/Kids, with three key terms slashed together, conveys the idea that the practice of parenting may extend both to the Internet and to our children—to the extent that both require attention, care, and forms of regulation, and, in turn, provide support and enjoyment. While the triadic title is somewhat playful, it also strikes a serious note and introduces layered possibilities: we are not simply raising children who have grown up in the internet age, but also Domesticating Technologies by “managing” the computer. The chapters consider questions of domestic labour and parental responsibilities, and focus on how children use and are influenced by the internet and social media, whether for positive or troubling outcomes.

“This timely collection considers the ways that parenting is mediated through technologies that impact both parents and children. In looking at the ways we connect—and disconnect—through digital media, the book shares important insights into how the Internet has opened up and shifted our experiences of family.”—MAY FRIEDMAN, Author of Mommyblogs and the Changing Face of Motherhood and faculty member at Ryerson University

Mothering on the Edge: A critical examination of mothering within child protection systems

by Brooke Richardson

September 2022 / 978-1-77258-406-6 / $39.95 / 300 pp.

SOCIAL WORK / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

This book offers three unique contributions to existing literature on mothering in child protection. First, it creates space for mothers involved in child protection to have their voices heard. Second, it acknowledges the centrality of mothers’ subjective experience in keeping children safe. Finally, it challenges dominant, often dehumanizing narratives of mothers involved in child protection through providing a more nuanced understanding of their lives. Ultimately it calls for a fundamental rethinking of how mothers involved in child protection proceedings are conceptualized in child protection research, policy, and practice.

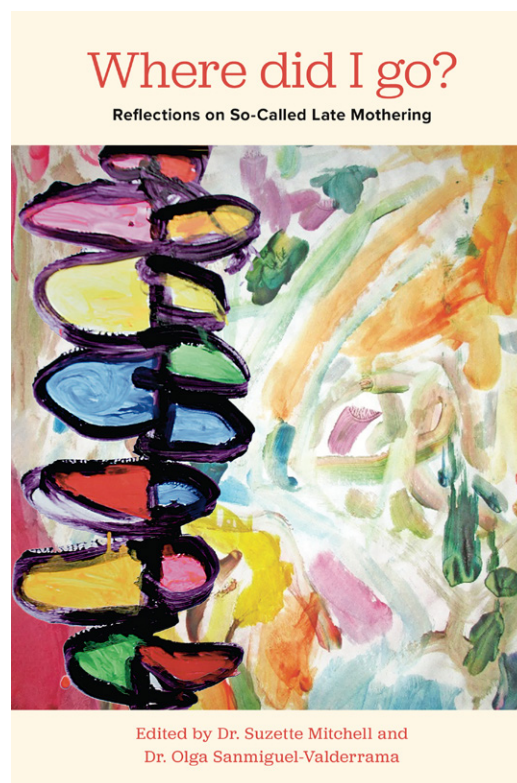

“Mothering is central to the child protection system in Canada and other ‘western’ countries. This stimulating book, edited by Brooke Richardson, is important. It raises and discusses how this can be critically examined and reformed and, thereby, policy and practice improved so that the needs of mothers (and children) can be more readily addressed.”—NIGEL PARTON, Emeritus Professor, University of Huddersfield, England

Where Did I Go? Reflections on So-Called Late Mothering
 edited by Dr. Suzette Mitchell and Dr. Olga Sanmiguel-Valderrama

October 2022 / 978-1-77258-407-3 / $39.95 / 300 pp.
 MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / AGING STUDIES / FAMILY STUDIES / E-BOOK

Women are having children later in life, out of choice and also aided by improved reproductive technologies. Women are also more educated than at any other time in history, with the last generation seeing women’s professional careers not as unusual, but as the norm for university educated women. This book is a collection of auto-ethnography narratives that provide personal stories and struggles from professional, tertiary educated women who are termed “late mothers.” It illustrates their on-the-ground lived experiences and the impact motherhood has on them and those around them, within the workplace and wider society.

“This collection of ‘so-called’ late mothering stories is a balm for those who were marked medically as “geriatric” in their pregnancies and are looking to find information and stories to reflect their journeys as mothers. Come for the universal mothering stories; stay for the fascinating details that make each mother’s story her own.”—

Maternal Connections: When Daughter becomes Mother edited by Joan Garvan and Kande Kosior

November 2022 / 978-1-77258-408-0 / $39.95 / 198 pp.
 MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / MOTHERLINE STUDIES / MOTHERS AND DAUGHTER / E-BOOKS

This is a wonderful and insightful collection of stories and reflections. The chapters are primarily autobiographical and are told through a range of lenses. One author outlines Anishinaabeg ceremonial practices that honour and represent maternal connections, and others demonstrate how art and craft can both assist in working through, and carry forward, maternal stories. Further pieces use a combination of literary critique, feminist theory, and post-Freudian psychoanalysis to interpret varied texts. Another highlights findings from a series of interviews with women reflecting on the attributes and practices they will carry forward or discard from their experience of being mothered.

“With chapters that include innovative uses of graphics and poetry, the reinstatement, two generations on, of a maternal craft practice as art, and exploration into the work of Elena Ferrante, this book privileges a blend of theory and personal experience that highlights how we think best when we work from the inside out as well as the outside in.”—ROS HOWELL, psychodynamic counsellor, movement psychotherapist, DBT therapist and writer

Mother Load: Memoirs of Struggle and Strength

edited by Brenda M Doyle, Melanie Faye, Nancy Garrow, Kathy Honickman, Jennifer Walcott, and Ellen O'Donnell Walters

December 2022 / 978-1-77258-410-3 / $29.95 / 124 pp.

MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / FAMILY STUDIES / MEMOIR STUDIES / E-BOOK

Mother Load is a collection of memoir, inner monologue, poetry, and short stories which let readers in on some of the realities of mothering from the 1940s to the early 2000s. This kaleidoscope of courageous narratives bring to the surface the tensions that haunt mothering relationships across generations. Grief, anger, and loss are here as well as insights, perspective, and gratitude. Moreover, the silence in these relationships has been highlighted: what was assumed, what was unquestioned or undiscussable, what was too shameful or painful to be put into words. The women whose work is collected here differ from one another in a myriad of ways: family history and geographical location, class, racial identity, and education. But the unity among them lies in their commitment to reflection and to the desire to go closer to their own histories and those of their families, and to express the truths of their lives and their experiences. In telling these stories lies hope for better.

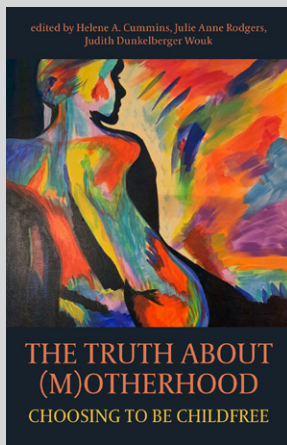

Pagan, Goddess, Mother

edited by Nané Jordan and Chandra Alexandre

January 2021 / 978-1-77258-264-2 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 196 pp.

GODDESS STUDIES / PAGAN STUDIES / RELIGIOUS STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

This volume calls Pagan and Goddess mothering into focus by highlighting philosophies and experiences of mothers in these spiritual movements and traditions. Pagan and Goddess spirituality are distinct, yet overlapping and diverse communities, with much to say about deity as mother, and about human mothers in relationship to deity.

The Truth About (M)otherhood: Choosing to be Childfree

edited by Helene A. Cummins, Julie Anne Rodgers, and Judith Dunkelberger Wouk

February 2021 / 978-1-77258-284-0 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 240 pp.

WOMEN'S STUDIES / SOCIOLOGY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

In a world full of messages about the joys of motherhood, ticking biological clocks, pronatalist ideologies, and socio-cultural imperatives for women to mother, what does the alternative look like? That is, what is the experience of women who choose, or find themselves without progeny, when they are deemed “other,” instead of being a “mother”?

Who's Laughing Now? Feminist Perspectives on Humour and Laughter
 edited by Anna Lise Frey

March 2021 / 978-1-77258-283-3 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 144 pp.

HUMOUR / GENDER STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

From dour old women to buzzkills who can't take a joke, the stereotype of the humourless feminist has repeatedly been deployed to derail and delegitimize the women's rights movement. This collection skips the tired debates that ask whether feminists can be funny – we know the answer to this already – to instead investigate contemporary expressions and functions of humour within international feminist movements and communities.

Mothers, Mothering, and COVID-19: Dispatches from a Pandemic
 edited by Andrea O'Reilly and Fiona Joy Green

March 2021 / 978-1-77258-343-4 / $49.95 / 6 x 9 / 550 pp.

SOCIOLOGY / COVID-19 / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

This collection is the first to explore the impact of the pandemic on mothers' care and wage labour in the context of employment, schooling, communities, families, and the relationships of parents and children. With a global perspective, the volume examines the increasing complexity and demands of childcare, domestic labour, elder care, and home schooling under the pandemic protocols; and the strategies mothers have used to manage the competing demands of care and wage labour under COVID-19.

Birth... Journey to the Wild Depths of Motherhood
 by Dr Veronica Moule

April 2021 / 978-1-77258-327-4 / $19.99 / 6 x 9 / 204 pp.

POETRY / BIRTH / MIDWIFERY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / WOMEN'S WRITING / E-BOOK

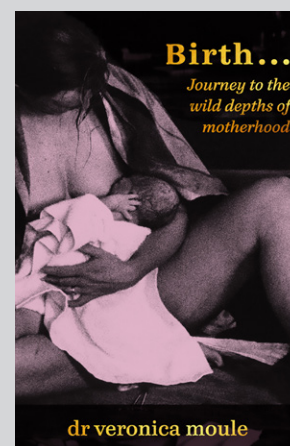

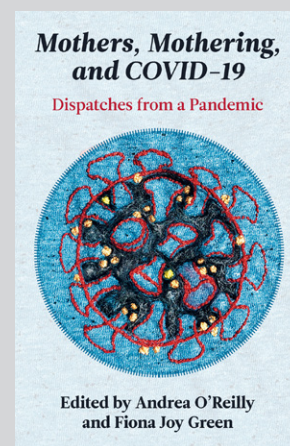

Held in the story of Persephone, we start where all women now begin their birth journey – with Zeus, in the structure of patriarchy. Then we move beyond, through the supportive hold of mother Demeter, then further into ourselves until we find the unique wonder of woman, through courage, strength and surrender. Written from the embodied experience of a home birth mother and GP obstetrician, offering pregnant women and birth attendants insights into the hospital system, and the beauty that can be found in natural birthing.

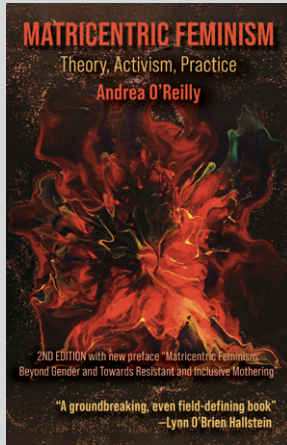

This Life I've Bled – A Memoir
 by Jacquelyn Johnston

April 2021 / 978-1-77258-247-5 / $29.95 / 6 x 9 / 300 pp.

MEMOIR / LIFE WRITING / ADDICTION / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / WOMEN'S WRITING / E-BOOK

This Life I've Bled is the painfully honest true story of a small town girl's symbolically bloody, stigmatized life relating her experiences with alcoholism, drug addiction, religion, mental health issues, bisexuality, abortion, divorce and the accidental loss of all three of her children, two of whom died ten days apart. As depressing as that sounds, the story is infused with humour as quirky as the author herself and is intended as a hopeful handbook on how to survive a life on planet earth.

Matricentric Feminism: Theory, Activism, Practice. The 2nd Edition
by Andrea O'Reilly

April 2021 / 978-1-77258-376-2 / $38.95 / 6 x 9 / 292 pp.

MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

The new preface to the 2nd edition, Matricentric Feminism: Beyond Gender and Towards Resistant and Inclusive Mothering, explores four central concerns of matricentric feminism: the specific political import and intent of racialized women's motherwork, the radical queering of empowered mothering, the real and prevalent oppressions of motherwork, and the foregrounding of mothers and mothering in feminism. here O'Reilly persuasively shows how matricentric feminism has been marginalized in academic feminism and considers the reasons for such exclusion and how such may be challenged and changed.

FALLING TOGETHER
A family's story of mental illness and grief

Falling Together: A Family's Story of Mental Illness and Grief
by Donna McCart Sharkey

April 2021 / 978-1-77258-350-2 / $19.95 / 6 x 9 / 180 pp.

MEMOIR / LIFE WRITING / BEREAVEMENT / FAMILY STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S WRITING / E-BOOK

The author anticipated building an ordinary family. And that's what happened. But mental illness and grief also happened, undermining the security of home and changing the familial experience from ordinary to extraordinary. A hard story to live, a hard story to read, this book describes the day to day life in a family navigating their increasingly fraught lives.

From Band-Aids to Scalpels: Motherhood Experiences in/of Medicine
edited by Rohini Bannerjee and Karim Mukhida

June 2021 / 978-1-77258-332-8 / $29.95 / 6 x 9 / 180 pp.

MEDICINE / WOMEN AS PHYSICIANS / FEMALE EMPLOYMENT / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / E-BOOK

As medical schools steadily increase the number of women studying medicine, research on mothers in medical practice would add to a better understanding on the different values, expectations, institutions, and events that shape and define the identities within medicine. This volume explores how relationships between motherhood/mothering experiences in/of medicine are presently being theorized, re-examined, negotiated, and most importantly, debated.

Maternal Theory: Essential Readings, The 2nd Edition
 edited by Andrea O'Reilly

July 2021 / 978-1-77258-383-0 / $94.95 / 6 x 9 / 936 pp.

MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

Theory on mothers, mothering, and motherhood has emerged as a distinct body of knowledge within Motherhood Studies and Feminist Theory more generally. This collection, The Second Edition of Maternal Theory: Essential Readings, introduces readers to this rich and diverse tradition of maternal theory. Composed of 60 chapters, the 2nd edition includes two sections: the first has the classic texts, while the second section includes thirty new chapters on vital and new topics. Maternal Theory is essential reading for anyone interested in motherhood as experience, ideology, and identity.

Global Perspectives on Motherhood, Mothering and Masculinities edited by Tola Olu Pearce and Andrea Moraes

July 2021 / 978-1-77258-287-1 / $39.95 / 6 x 9 / 280 pp.

CRITICAL MASCULINITY AND MEN'S STUDIES / GENDER STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

The two phenomena highlighted in this edited volume are each recent areas of development in critical Feminist and Men's Studies. In contributing to these areas of gender studies, this book draws attention to the fact that much can also be gained when we explore relationships between them. The book is divided into three parts and the chapters investigate a wide range of issues including cultural constructs, gender in parent/child relationships, non-binary developments, the impact of war on mothering, decolonisation struggles, and much more.

Moving Meals and Migrating Mothers: Culinary cultures, diasporic dishes and familial foodways edited by Tanya M. Cassidy and Abdullahi Osman El-Tom

August 2021 / 978-1-77258-331-1 / $39.95 / 6 x 9 / 236 pp.

FOOD STUDIES / MIGRATION STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / WOMEN'S STUDIES / E-BOOK

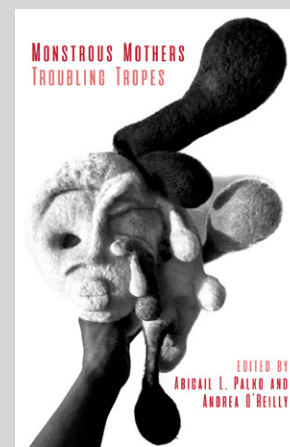

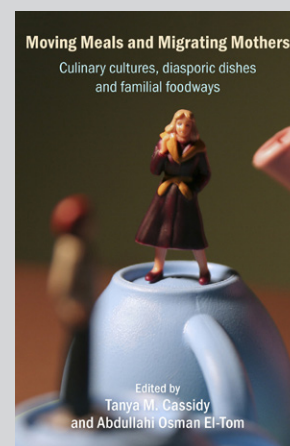

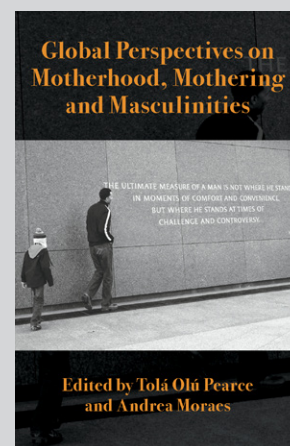

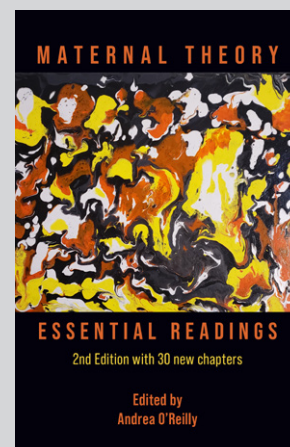

This collection explores the complex interplay between the important global issues of food, families, and migration. It is divided into three parts and although these parts are not mutually exclusive, they are meant to emphasize socio-cultural and economic considerations of migration, the food itself, and families.

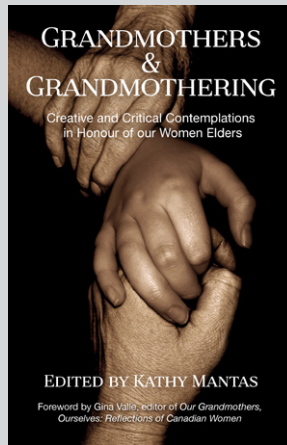

Monstrous Mothers: Troubling Tropes
 edited by Abigail L. Palko and Andrea O'Reilly

September 2021 / 978-1-77258-333-5 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 300 pp.

MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / LITERARY STUDIES / POPULAR CULTURE / FEMINIST THEORY / WOMEN'S STUDIES / E-BOOK

The contributors to this collection explore a multitude of interdisciplinary representations of mothers that, through their very depictions of bad mothering, challenge the tropes of monstrous mothering that we lean on, revealing in the process why we turn to them. It explores literary, cinematic, and real-life monstrous mothers, seeking to uncover social sources and results of these monstrosities.

Grandmothers and Grandmothering: Creative and Critical Contemplations in Honour of our Women Elders edited by Kathy Mantas

October 2021 / 978-1-77258-354-0 / $39.95 / 6 x 9 / 288 pp.

AGING / SOCIOLOGY / FAMILY STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / WOMEN'S HEALTH / E-BOOK

As the title suggests, this collection seeks to pay homage to our grandmothers and their contributions to society. It aims to explore the textured and complex phenomena of grandmothering from a range of disciplines and cultural perspectives. Our hope is that this collection challenges preconceived notions of what it means to be a grandmother and provides insight into the nature of grandmothering.

Visiting Africa: A Memoir
by Jesse O'Reilly-Conlin

November 2021 / 978-1-77258-356-4 / $39.95 / 6 x 9 / 300 pp.

MEMOIR / TRAVEL / LIFE WRITING / AFRICAN STUDIES / E-BOOK

Visiting Africa: A Memoir is a personal journey as well as a physical one: it is about my ongoing and evolving attempt to approach Africa and its cultures with humility and modesty and about my struggles as a privileged white man to ethically encounter and live in a world marked by injustice and racialized inequality. It is an investigation of privilege and how the privileged must overcome their own defensiveness and feelings of guilt if they are to stand in solidarity with those people they meet and write about. Finally, this book is an investigation into the possibilities of empathy.

Abortion and Mothering: Research, Stories, and Artistic Expressions edited by Heather Jackson and Jessica Shaw

December 2021 / 978-1-77258-355-7 / $39.95 / 6 x 9 / 292 pp.

WOMEN'S HEALTH / WOMEN'S STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

This collection is rooted in the idea that there are not 'women who have abortions' and 'women who have babies,' but that they are the same women at different points in their lives. By considering the intersection of abortion and mothering, and the liminal spaces in between, the reader is challenged to explore some of the culturally and socially constructed complexities that surround the decisions that people make about to their reproductive lives.

The Maternal Tug: Ambivalence, Identity, and Agency
edited by Sarah LaChance Adams, Tanya Cassidy, and Susan Hogan

January 2020 / 978-1-77258-213-0 / $39.95 / 6 x 9 / 292 pp.

SOCIOLOGY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FAMILY STUDIES / PHILOSOPHY / E-BOOK

While the existence of maternal ambivalence has been evident for centuries, it has only recently been recognized as central to the lived experience of mothering. This accessible, yet intellectually rigorous, interdisciplinary collection demonstrates its presence and meaning in relation to topics such as pregnancy, birth, sleep, helicopter parenting, poverty, depression, anxiety, queer mothering, disability, neglect, filicide, and war rape. These candid explorations demand we rethink our basic assumptions about how mothering is experienced in everyday life.

Feminist Fathering/Fathering Feminists: New Definitions and Directions
 edited by Nicole L. Willey and Dan Friedman

February 2020 / 978-1-77258-218-5 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 308 pp.

GENDER STUDIES / CRITICAL MASCULINITY STUDIES / SOCIOLOGY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / E-BOOK

Fathering in all its guises is in the process of transformation, as fathers are both more involved with their families than before, but also still largely considered inferior to mothers in most ways. The essays in this collection explore the underexamined and contested category “father” from an intersectional feminist perspective. Contributors ask: What is a father? What does fathering look like? From the perspective of single fathers, queer fathers, people of color, and all those affected by fathering, this collection explores the radical possibility of feminist fathering.

Breasts Across Motherhood: Lived Experiences and Critical Examinations
 edited by Patricia Drew and Rosann Edwards

March 2020 / 978-1-77258-217-8 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 272 pp.

MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / HEALTH / WOMEN’S STUDIES / BODY STUDIES / MIDWIFERY / E-BOOK

Breasts are integral to mothers’ bodies; over the life course, they can swell, droop, be judged, be aroused, lactate, be altered, be removed. A woman’s own breasts may be foremost in her mind during some life events, only to recede into the background at other times. The chapters in this volume bring together perspectives from around the world. They include historical and contemporary examinations, and feature first-person narrative accounts, academic interviews, and art analyses.

What is feminist parenting? Is it something for all parents? What does it mean to be a feminist parent in practice? The 27 parents from diverse backgrounds and countries gathered in this anthology share powerful responses to the above questions by narrating their experiences of some of the challenges, dilemmas, promises and compromises of parenting with a feminist perspective. This volume is one of the first collections published with first-person essays describing very touching, beautiful, and sometimes painful stories of what it means and to become a feminist parent.

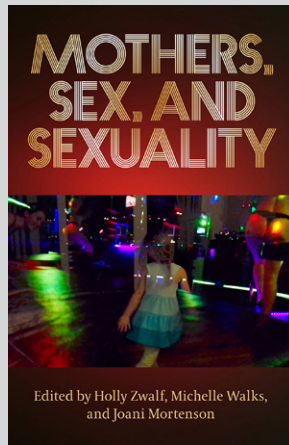

Writing Mothers: Narrative Acts of Care, Redemption, and Transformation edited by BettyAnn Martin and Michelann Parr

May 2020 / 978-1-77258-223-9 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 260 pp.

LITERARY CRITICISM/THEORY / NARRATIVE STUDIES / MATERNAL THEORY / E-BOOK

The story of motherhood is told through many voices and in many contexts. As editors, we embarked upon this journey seeking answers, but we have come to realize that open questions and ongoing dialogue create the possibility for open futures. Our stories—those lived, those told, and those yet to be written—engage us in a quest to reclaim, to restore, and to transform our personal and social mothering spaces, leading us toward liberating social, cultural, and institutional narratives.

Mothers, Sex, And Sexuality

edited by Holly Zwalf, Michelle Walks, and Joani Mortenson

June 2020 / 978-1-77258-222-2 / $29.95 / 6 x 9 / 252 pp.

SEXUALITY STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / GENDER STUDIES / SOCIOLOGY / E-BOOK

Mothers, Sex, and Sexuality talks about things not normally dared spoken out loud—the interconnectedness and conflict between our parental and sexual selves, the taboo of the sexual mother, and why it matters so much to shatter it. What is it about the sexual mother that is incompatible, and at times even disturbing? Why are we threatened by maternal sexuality? And what does this tell us about the structures of gender and power that govern our bodies?

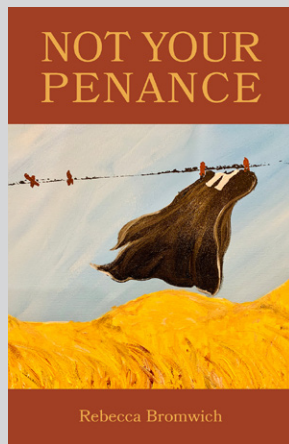

RAPE CULTURE 101: Programming Change

edited by Geraldine Cannon Becker and Angel T. Dionne

June 2020 / 978-1-77258-227-7 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 284 pp.

WOMEN'S STUDIES / SOCIOLOGY / GENDER STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / SOCIAL JUSTICE / E-BOOK

Rape culture is an idea that links rape and sexual violence to the culture of a society, and in which commonly-held beliefs, attitudes, and practices normalize, excuse, tolerate, and even condone rape. The complexity of rape culture is discussed here from a variety of contexts and perspectives, as this volume contains interdisciplinary academic submissions from educators and students, as well as experiential accounts from members of various community settings who are doing work aimed at making a positive difference towards programming change.

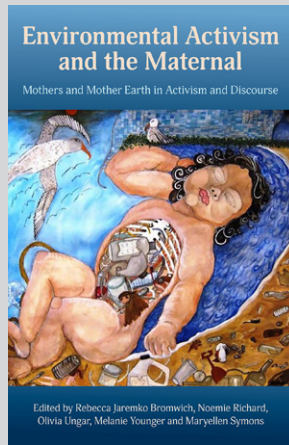

Not Your Penance

by Rebecca Bromwich

July 2020 / 978-1-77258-286-4 / $19.95 / 6 x 9 / 164 pp.

FICTION / LEGAL STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / E-BOOK

One quiet October morning, 41-year-old stay-at-home mom and social media aficionado Enid Kimble receives two messages, one a disquieting phone call about her mother, and the other a newspaper clipping in a plain envelope in her mailbox, that start to unravel her carefully woven-together world. This tense, layered novel debut by lawyer and legal scholar Rebecca Jaremko Bromwich, spins an intriguing story about motherhood, love, law, coming to terms with the complexities of our pasts, and claiming our futures.

Environmental Activism and the Maternal: Mothers and Mother Earth in Activism and Discourse

edited by Rebecca Jaremko Bromwich, Noemie Richard, Olivia Ungar, Melanie Younger, and Maryellen Symons

August 2020 / 978-1-77258-232-1 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 196 pp.

ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES / SOCIAL JUSTICE / MATERNAL ACTIVISM / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / SOCIOLOGY / FEMINIST THEORY / WOMEN'S STUDIES / E-BOOK

In keeping with its intention to provide a space for discussion of a complex and varied array of perspectives on mothers, mothering, and mother earth, this is an interdisciplinary anthology. Contributions included hail from a wide range of disciplines and fields including psychology, sociology, anthropology, women's and gender studies, cultural studies, literary studies, as well as law and legal studies.

What's in a Name?: Perspectives from Non-Biological and Non-Gestational Queer Mothers

edited by Sherri Martin-Baron, Raechel Johns, and Emily Regan Wills

September 2020 / 978-1-77258-237-6 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 220 pp.

QUEER STUDIES / GENDER STUDIES / SOCIOLOGY / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

Queer parenthood: It's multifaceted. It's complex. What's in a Name? reflects on this complexity through the voices of nonbiological/non-gestational queer mothers/parents who explore our experiences parenting across our different social and familial locations. The authors have all taken different routes to parenting. What they share is a commitment to parenting beyond the limits of biology, that are drawn together and maintained by the love and labour of parenting.

Mothering and Welfare: Depriving, Surviving, Thriving

edited by Karine Levasseur, Stephanie Paterson, and Lorna A. Turnbull

October 2020 / 978-1-77258-242-0 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 284 pp.

SOCIOLOGY / WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / SOCIAL JUSTICE / E-BOOK

This volume investigates the intersections of welfare, gender, and mothering work in the current political climate. It also explores austerity and the policies of neo-liberal governments that work to deprive some mothers of their welfare. Last, it examines different ways of thinking about mothering and what changes to laws and policies are required to assist all who are mothering.

Mothering and Entrepreneurship: Global perspectives, Identities, and Complexities edited by Talia Esnard and Melanie Knight

BUSINESS AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP STUDIES / WOMEN'S EMPLOYMENT / MOTHERHOOD STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

At a broad level, the chapters within address the different histories of oppression, movement of people, socio-economic conditions that underpin that experience, and the various axes of power that affect the precariousness of work and citizenship on a global scale. On a more specific level, we set the work-family discourse within many points of contentions related to how researchers have conceptualized work-life interface, the specific assumptions embedded within these investigations, and the implications of these for how we (re)present the dynamics related to mothering and entrepreneurship.

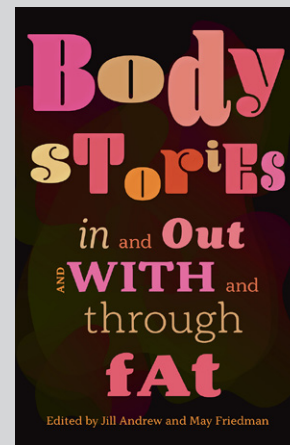

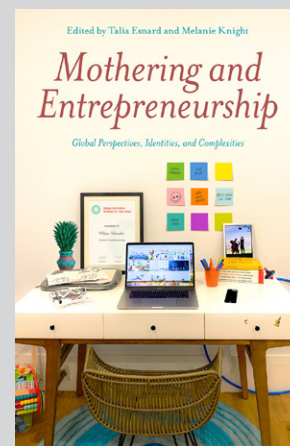

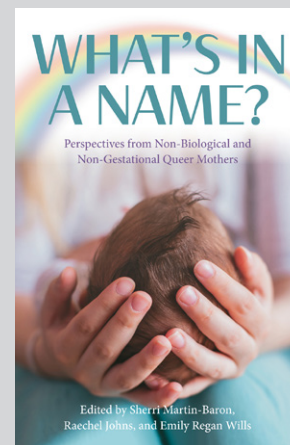

Body Stories: In and Out and With and Through Fat

edited by Jill Andrew and May Friedman

December 2020 / 978-1-77258-254-3 / $34.95 / 6 x 9 / 240 pp.

FAT STUDIES / EMBODIMENT STUDIES / WOMEN'S STUDIES / FEMINIST THEORY / E-BOOK

Body stories capture a nuanced, interconnected, and complex telling of our understanding, perception and experience of and through our bodies. This book is not a "how-to" guide for fat confidence. It's not a compendium of fat suffering. It's simply a collection of narratives about what it's like to survive in a weight-hating world. It resists the ways that marginalized bodies are being written and researched and put into other people's ideas about our existence.
